Items	Discussion	Action Required
Minutes:	On tables
Spring plant sale:	Sold $617.00; billed $415.00; profit $202.00
Announcements:	Thanks to Casi Bromelmeier making our nametags for WCNA meetings.
	Green Team June 25, 9-12. Volunteers meet at parking lot by the Swinney pool. We will work the south side of Jefferson beyond the bridge. Donuts, coffee and juice will be served.
	Tom DeLong has collected many tires and Alice Goodland presented a check for $107.50 from the sale of those tires. Tom requested that this money be spent for another night out at Moody Park as we did two years ago. He will chair program and Barbara Coddling will assist.
	Home tour committee meets monthly at Mike Walsh's house at 1004 Washington. Next meeting is June 21 at 7:00. Norma announces that we have 12 stops and seven houses.
	Garage Sale is July 9. Kevin Knuth and Jack Stark are chairing. Flyers have been distributed.
	Newsletters are on Mary Modezjewski's porch for carriers to pick up, or get them tonight from her car.
	Window Restoration workshop postponed until August.
	Volunteers needed for Gold Wing Convention July 3-7.
Old Business:	Traffic ... Jackie Beals and Judy Cole report that the flashing light has helped the noise factor at College and Jefferson.
	Truck Committee...Jackie reports we still have not won the fight against through truck traffic. More public meetings will be held in August with area partnerships. Jackie is also getting a quote for making signs saying "NO TRUCKS" to out in yards on Washington and Jefferson. We still need to contact our council members for support.

	CCW... No report
	Flood Control...no report
	Abandoned properties:
	1134 Nelson and 1307 Jackson. Next Monday the review board meets at 5:30 on the 8th floor of the City County Building. Jill Downs, Mary Modezjewski, John Simerman, and Larry Coddling will be there.
	John Simerman and Larry Coddling will meet with Tom Bandor, City Code Enforcement Officer. Discussion followed with suggestion that the Green Team could volunteer to clean up the yard. John Simerman stated that our neighborhood has a long history of saving properties from demolition.
	Motion was passed that WCNA will write a letter to code enforcement stating that we want to save properties, not destroy them, as stated in our neighborhood plan approved by the city.
Announcement:	July 15 in LaPorte, Indiana, will be the Historic Landmark Association meeting. Some WCNA members plan to attend. Contact Jill for information.
New Business:
	Larry Coddling suggested that in an attempt to bring the Three Rivers Parade back to West Central we could offer volunteers to handle the roadblocks rather than police officers, thus saving city money. Larry will contact Kevin Knuth to form a committee.
