Items	Discussion	Action Required
Green Team:	No volunteers available
Home Tour:	Income $14,600.00 but still have outstanding bills.
Certification of CHDO:	Jill assigned task and will be working with Heather Presley.
1134 Nelson:	WCNA has purchased property and needs volunteers for Wednesday eve. to help family move personal items. Cindy Husar, Tom Delong, and Larry Coddling volunteered.
Green Team:	Clean-up at 1134 Nelson Oct. 22, 2005, at 9:00 AM.
Historic expansion:	Since owner response has not been strong enough in the newer area around Wilt Street, we may need to reduce the size of the area that was designated.
Nominating committee:	Norma Hoepfner, Carol Salge and Cindy Husar.
Amendment to previous motion:	The line of credit requires two co-signers, which would be the president and the treasurer. Therefore the motion was to amend the previous motion to authorize purchase of property not contingent on conventional financing or individual co-signing. The acquisition of properties will be funded by the treasury, assuming other funds are not available. Motion carried.
Funding:	Jill Downs assigned task of locating grants and other possible funding sources.
Traffic control:	Judy Cole presented petition on further calming traffic problem on Washington and Jefferson. Available for signing.
Ladder trucks being moved:	Ladder fire trucks in WCNA area are being moved the first of year. Chief Tim Davie invited to speak next meeting.
Tax increase:	Houses without insurance will have a projected tax increase of 3.9% per year.
